

Pull The Pin Quiz

Challenge yourself or video call your friends for a bit of competitive fun.

Round One: Rum

- 1) How is Rum made?
- 2) Which country in the world consumes the most Rum?
- 3) Which Military Service is known for its Rum consumption?
- 4) What century did the first Rum distillation take place in?
- 5) What does Navy Strength mean?
- 6) What are the ingredients of:
a) Pina Colada, b) Pin -A – Colada

Round Two: The Human Body

- 1) Which part of the body never stops growing?
- 2) How much saliva do you produce per year? 1, 2 or 3 bath tubs?
- 3) Borborygmus is the medical term for what bodily function or condition?
- 4) What is the only muscle in the body that never tires?
- 5) How many times a minute do you blink?
- 6) Where in the body is your Humerus?

Round Three: Military

- 1) What year did WW2 start?
- 2) Who designed the German Army uniform in WW2?
- 3) What are the three services that make up the modern military?
- 4) What does Hoofin' mean?
- 5) What does SAS and SBS stand for?
- 6) We celebrate VE (Victory in Europe) Day on the 8th May. What special anniversary is it this year?

Round Four: Quotes

Who said the following?

- 1) Be less curious about people and more curious about ideas.
- 2) Float like a butterfly sting like a Bee.
- 3) Imagination is more important of knowledge.
- 4) It is not the strongest of the species that survives, nor the most intelligent that survives it is the one that is most adaptable to change.
- 5) Don't follow the crowd, let the crowd follow you.
- 6) Success is not final, failure is not fatal: it is the courage to continue that counts.

Round Five: Acronyms. What do these stand for?

1)HAHO 2) ETA 3) PTP 4) PDF 5) CLAG 6) BMW 7) KFC 8) YMCA 9) GPS 10) RSPB

Round Six: Miscellaneous

- 1) What is a Lipizzaner?
- 2) What year was the NHS established?
- 3) How many hearts does an Octopus have?
- 4) What is the Capital of Canada?
- 5) What peaks make up the 3 peaks. The highest peaks in England, Scotland and Wales?
- 6) Name three words in the English language that have no vowels?

TIME TO PULL THE PIN